

Loser's Love

Music & Words by Claas Fischer

Chorus:

I can't never find my love in this world of disarray
But I still find myself giving my heart away.

1.

I knew a girl, she taught me how to kiss.
Well, I can say my childhood was a bliss.
When I met her later, thought how it might be,
She had got married and her baby.

2.

I knew a girl, she was really cute,
Sitting in the grass in her bathing-suit.
Two times we were together, it was no great event
Because she was envious of my boy-friend.

3.

I knew a girl, "You're the loveli'st one" came from her precocious lips.
She lured me into her garage and gave me her hips.
But when I waited for her on the very next day,
It was the dentist who had taken her away.

4.

I knew a girl, we danced all Sunday night.
I loved her hair, her eyes, her hands to hold tight.
I was at her birthday party, around her heaps of boys.
What there was left for me was playing with my toys.

5.

I knew a girl, she sent me letters of love.
Her face revealed a sweet and innocent dove.
We were on holiday, lying on the beach,
I was trying really hard but her heart was out of reach.

6.

I knew a girl, we ran on an icy track.
She took my hand to preserve me from plopping on my back.
We sat in a restaurant when after a while
I had to get to know that only Jesus was her style.
